

LIABILITY AND RELEASE AGREEMENT

I am aware that during this tour in Mexico I am voluntarily selecting The Milburn Foundation as my tour leaders. Certain risks and dangers may arise during this tour, and are not limited to mountain terrain, illness or accidents in remote areas of Mexico, with out immediate access to medical facilities. These may also include travel by air, bus, automobile or other forces of nature. This agreement will serve as a release for myself.

I understand the terms and conditions mentioned in this agreement, assume the risks, and understand the MFI and associates is not and will not be held accountable or liable for any accident, emergency, or injury relevant to this tour.

I acknowledge to you The Milburn Foundation and its associates I am capable, physically and otherwise, to make this trip and assume responsibility and cost for any emergency or injury that may occur to me while on this tour in Mexico. I am also aware emergency hospital care may require evacuation to the closest facility from the remote area I will be traveling in. I understand I will fully be responsible for any medical treatment or necessary emergency evacuation resulting from my trip participation.

I have been advised about purchasing travel insurance and will make the necessary arrangements with Travelex Insurance or its equivalent provider.

If an unlikely event of a dispute the following conditions will be applied. The dispute will be submitted in writing to The Milburn Foundation, PO Box 2814, Durango, CO 81302. Colorado law will be used during the dispute. The only amount to be returned or obtained will not exceed the purchase price of my tour. I will also release The Milburn Foundation from all claims about this amount.

I acknowledge with my signature below I have read all the conditions on this agreement and understand this agreement shall be effective upon family members, heirs, other personal representatives or myself during the entire process of the tour.
